BRODHEAD LAW HELPS REFERRING ATTORNEYS MAXIMIZE CASE VALUE

Ben C. Brodhead, an honors graduate of Harvard Law School, has been a leader in the field of catastrophic injury and wrongful death litigation for over 20 years. Brodhead Law's primary focus is on trucking litigation, a field in which the firm has recovered tens of millions of dollars for its clients. Through a comprehensive understanding of state and federal trucking industry regulations, Brodhead Law achieves the maximum recovery available for its clients by holding the trucking industry accountable.

Brodhead Law's success is based on the following clear principles: provide hard work, sophisticated strategies, and ample resources to recover the highest possible value for each client and each referring attorney.

Brodhead Law's success also relies on the team of legal professionals that it has built to handle the most complex issues with the highest level of skill, innovation, and customer service. These team members include attorneys Ashley B. Fournet, Richard B. Caplan, and Jennifer S. Mundy. The firm's efforts and accomplishments in catastrophic injury and wrongful death cases have earned Brodhead inclusion on the Georgia Super Lawyers list for the last 12 years and Fournet inclusion on the Rising Stars list for 2016 and 2017 and Super Lawyers for 2019.

If you have a catastrophic injury or wrongful death case, there is no better firm to associate than Brodhead Law.
